Mr. Avelino A. Gutierrez
New Mexico Public Regulation Commission
Legal Division, Room 516
1120 Paseo de Peralta
Santa Fe, NM 87504

Dear Mr. Gutierrez:

I am pleased to inform you that I have selected you for appointment as a member of the Board of Directors of the Unified Carrier Registration Plan (the Board). The term of your appointment is effective immediately and will expire May 31, 2016.

On May 12, 2006, the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) announced the establishment of the Board as mandated by the Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users. The Board is responsible for issuing rules and regulations to govern the administration of the Unified Carrier Registration Agreement (UCRA) and for other matters specified by law. The UCRA governs the registration of for-hire and private motor carriers, brokers, freight forwarders, and leasing companies and the collection and distribution of registration fees by the participating States.

The FMCSA remains committed to supporting the Board as it implements the UCRA. Should you need additional information or assistance, please contact Jose M. Rodriguez, Transportation Specialist, Office of Research and Information Technology, at (202) 366-3517 or by email at jose.rodriquez@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Anne S. Ferro
