

Proposed definition of intrastate transportation.

For the purposes of 49 USC 14504a (f) (3), a commercial motor vehicles used exclusively in intrastate transportation of property, waste, or recyclable material if:

- 1) The vehicle will never cross the state border during the course of the UCR registration year ;
- 2) The vehicle will never transport property, waste, or recyclable material that originated from out-of-state or is destined to go out-of-state; and
- 3) The vehicle does not have an apportioned plate issued under the International Registration Plan (IRP).